With hindsight: a real Catch-22!

Fair Value EUR57 vs. EUR54 (+36%)

BUY

Admittedly, the current psychosis does contain elements of truth and maintaining the investment grade is evidently key to us (the investor base would be largely reduced if Casino is downgraded, while the potential return to the sacrosanct rating would come at a very high price). But what is most regretful in such a situation is that the current market's "credit noise" leaves little room for management to explore all the potential strategic options which it could otherwise consider in order to maintain the necessary conditions for long-term growth.

- In light of the crisis in Brazil, detractors, scaring the cat out of the bag which was already open for some time, have fed a viscous circle (i.e. widening CDS spread as the stock weakens). In order to break such a spiral, Casino announced disposals to deleverage the Holdco. Ultimately, detractors may find it easy to criticise management for selling jewels in the crown. But who is going to come out on top? A real Catch-22.
- The cherry on the cake, S&P unexpectedly reviewed (January 15th) the position it took post the Exito deal (it should make a decision by mid-April regarding a potential downgrade). Was it influenced by detractors' attacks or was it purely a way to protect itself from any criticism of negligence? Post disposals, which would dramatically improve its proportional credit ratio, could a downgrade really be justified?
- From that moment onwards, a rather obvious option for Casino would be to transfer the rest of Casino's GPA voting ordinary shares to Exito (thus improving the proportionate credit ratios). But Casino may also do what is generally expected from a wise asset manager: sell high at 1.7x sales (Big C Thailand already done) and buy low at 0.2x sales.
- The strategy might be that Exito bids for all the GPA shares (incl. Casino's remaining voting stake and minorities). Ultimately, Casino could buy back the minorities of Exito. Both Exito and GPA would be taken private and Casino would be the sole shareholder of LatAm (this would improve the flow of the cash within the company!). By doing so, we estimate that Casino would maintain decent proportionate debt ratios.
- In another scenario, by announcing a post-disposals ("EUR4bn) return of cash to shareholders (up to EUR700m buy-back), Casino would not only benefit from another squeeze of short positions but, on unchanged dividend liabilities (i.e. EUR350m), Rallye would also benefit from an increased source of cash to help balance its financial equation at least.

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY

Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.

NEUTRAL

Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.

SELL

Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
