Q1 16 Sales Preview: well-flagged challenging comparison base; all eyes on the outlook

Fair Value EUR61 (+26%)

Luxottica will only release Q1 16 Sales on 29th April, as the group is no longer required to report Q1 and Q3 financial statements following a new Italian law which came into force on 18th March. We anticipate top line to come in at EUR2,315m, which implies a cautious 3.9% FX-n increase to reflect the demanding comparison base. In light of the FY guidance (+5-6% FX-n sales growth, EBIT to increase 1.5x faster), the sales and earnings momentum will clearly be more favourable throughout the remainder of the year. Buy recommendation and FV of EUR61 reiterated.

ANALYSIS

- Q1 should be marked by the weakest FX-n growth of the year, in our view. Although the months of January and February were "good", management reminded during the Investor Day (2nd March) that Q1 organic growth would be hampered by the calendar shift (Retail North America) and the challenging comparison base given the successful launch of Michael Kors, which generated sales of approx. EUR20m in Q1 (or ~1.1pp positive impact on FX-n growth).
- We anticipate sales of EUR2,315m (+3.9% FX-n and +2.8% as reported). Wholesale sales should increase by 4.5% FX-n, mainly driven Latin America and Europe (BG ests: mid single-digit growth). We are more cautious for North America which particularly benefited from the launch of Michael Kors the prior year (Q1 15: +9.8% FX-n) and was not yet impacted by the integration of Oakley's wholesale activities into the group's operations. We also have a prudent forecast for Retail (+3.5% FX-n) which will be partly affected by the calendar shift in North America (~79% of total retail sales) and Sunglass Hut US continued to suffer from the lack of tourists (~15% of SGH US sales).

Luxottica Q1 16 sales forecast:

EURm	Q1 15	Q1 16
Wholesale Division	940	954
FX-n growth (%)	8.0	4.5
Reported growth	16.8	1.5
Retail Division (rep. / adj.)	1,270 / 1,312 *	1,361
FX-n growth (%)	3.3/6.6	3.5
Reported growth	22.4 / 26.4	3.7
Group total (rep. / adj.)	2,210 / 2,252 *	2,315
FX-n growth (%)	5.3 / 7.2	3.9
Reported growth	19.9 / 22.2	2.8
* Before the change in accounting me	Source: Company Data, BG ests

Let's play at improving momentum from Q2 onwards. Our FY FX-n sales growth assumption (~6%) is the higher range of the FY guidance (+5-6%) and implies a sequential acceleration from Q2. Besides the easier comparison bases, Luxottica will also enjoy the positive impact from the opening/remodeling of ~500 stores in 2016 which should fuel the organic growth within the Retail Division. As for profitability, our FY16 EBIT growth forecast (+7% vs. 2014 adj. EBIT) remains more conservative than the rule-of-thumb (~1.2x vs. 1.5x sales growth).

VALUATION

- The share is down ~20% ytd given the lack of visibility concerning governance and the recent slight weakening of the USD currency (~56% of sales). With respect to the latter, the negative impact is very limited so far (based on EUR/USD spot rate of 1.14: -3pp on top line and ~2.5pp on EPS).
- Since we remain confident in the current management team's ability to efficiently implement and execute all the initiatives presented at the Investor Day, we reiterate our Buy recommendation and our FV of EUR61.

BUY

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY	Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a
Der	recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.

- NEUTRAL Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
- SELL Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
