Q1 trading statement (first take): no major suprise

Fair Value EUR57 (+8%)

Regarding the quick refocusing on France, Casino delivered again in Q1 15 at both Géant and FP/LP and, at this early stage, we are reasonably optimistic as to Casino's ability to not even depend on its listed subsidiaries to pay the dividend (guidance is for a 2016 FCF after financial expenses and dividend above EUR200m in France).

1/ As far as the domestic market is concerned (+1.5%LFL excl. fuel and calendar effects vs +2% e), this statement is decent. Figures turn out to be rather reassuring as to Casino's commercial recovery and FCF prospects in France. Both Hypermarkets (+3.8% vs +2,6% e) and FP/LP (~2.7% vs +2,6% e / +4.5% at LP and +0.1% at FP) show rather flattering figures, Supermarché Casino (+0.2% vs flat) prove to be fairly resilient. Proximity and others work out below expectations which, along with a slight deception on Monoprix (-0.4% vs +0,4% e), explains why France, as a whole, is below expectations (+1.5% LFL vs +2.0% e). 2/ No major surprise overseas since GPA and Cnova had already released their own statement. Latam Retail turned out to be fairly resilient (+3.7% vs +2,1%e) while Latam electronics shows a sequential improvement (-11.8% vs -12,1%e). Unsurprisingly, Cnova remains under pressure with -8.3% LFL (vs -5,2%e) because of Brazil (25% LFL sales decline or -19.7% restated for VAT adjustments) while France is rather encouraging (~+15% LFL).

ANALYSIS

- The repositioning of Géant, which brought visible benefits more than two years after the initiative was launched, illustrates the timescale specific to the sector (see Tesco in another register...). Regarding the quick refocusing on France, Casino delivered again in Q1 15 and, at this early stage, we are reasonably optimistic as to Casino's ability to not even depend on its listed subsidiaries to pay the dividend (guidance is for a 2016 FCF after financial expenses and dividend above EUR200m in France).
- Now that Thailand has been sold to TCC Group (Vietnam is to be sold sooner rather than later), the figures in Asia are not of great interest any more. However, ultimately, it is worth remembering that Casino managed to sell an asset which has been declining for a year at record multiples (i.e. 1.7x EV/Sales). Before the deal was announced, Asia represented ~40%e of Casino's EV. With hindsight, without questionning the long-term potential of Thaïland, we can imagine the consequence that a potential decline of Big C share price would have had on Casino's sacrosanct spot SOTP over a shorter time scale...

BUY

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY	Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a Der	recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.

NEUTRAL Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.

SELL Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
