NEUTRAL

Q1 2016/17 revenue growth of 2% is weaker than the expected 4.6%, creating easy comparabiles for AB InBev next year. However, there was very solid growth in most countries with disappointments driven by affiliates Castel (Angola), CRB (China), Anadolu Efes (Turkey) and also by the largest than expected impact of the earthquakes in Ecuador (volumes down 20%). In key subsidiaries of South Africa (organic revenue growth of 6%), rest of Africa (+9%), Colombia (+7%), Peru (+6%), business is strong.

SABMiller reported this morning light Q1 revenue figures with flat volume growth and organic net revenue growth of 2% compared to a consensus of 4.6%.

ANALYSIS

- The only region that did better than consensus was Europe where 6% revenue growth was ahead of the 4% expected. Organic revenue growth of 6% was on the back of 8% volume growth, driven by a 9% increase in lager volumes, cycling the last quarter of a weak comparative period, and with soft drinks volumes up 3% on the prior year. The contraction in revenue per hl of 2% reflected the deliberate pricing strategy implemented in Poland in the prior year and the resulting volume growth. Strong subsidiary top-line growth was partially offset by the continuing weakness in the key lager markets of its associate, Anadolu Efes.
- The region where the disappointment was the largest is Asia Pacific as revenue declined organic by 2% compared to an expected consensus growth of 4%. In Australia business was booming with organic revenue growth of 7% underpinned by volume growth of 4%. However in China, volumes were down 4% and organic revenue growth was down 7%, owing to the challenging industry and macro-economic conditions, although CR Snow outperformed the market.
- Other regions came in slightly weaker than expect with Africa growing organic 6% compared to a consensus of 9.5% (the weakness was in the Castel business where revenue grew organic only 1% and beverages volumes were down 4%, constrained by weak economic fundamentals in Angola where Castel has scaled back activity significantly), Latin America growing 5% compared to a consensus of 6.5% (good volume and pricing growth across the region but Ecuador volumes down 20% as a result of the earthquakes in April) and North America declining 3% compared to an expected decline of 1% (sales to wholesalers at MillerCoors down 4% compared to sales to retailers down only 2%).

VALUATION

• AB InBev has agreed to offer GBP44 per share

NEXT CATALYSTS

 Acquisition has gained regulatory approval in 21 regions/coutnries, including Europe, South Africa, US. For the acquisition to go ahead the Chinese regulatory authroities should still give their blessing although it is a condition that could be waved by the SABMiller board.

NEUTRAL Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary.
