ANALYSIS

- This morning, Diageo issued a trading commentary ahead of its shareholders' meeting. It indicated that 2016/17 has started well thanks to improved marketing, innovation and commercial execution. It also confirmed that organic sales growth over the year should accelerate, fuelled by Scotch, US spirits and India. We expect sales to rise 3.5% organically (2.8% in 2015/16).
- The company also indicated that the H1 organic EBIT margin should be impacted by productivity-costs that are linked to the GBP500m savings expected over the next three years. They will no longer be classified as an exceptional item. The trend in H2 should be better due to fewer productivity costs, higher savings and the benefits of the reinvestment of those savings. This will contribute to organic margin expansion for the full year. We now anticipate EBIT margin to drop 5bps organically in H1. But we are making no change to our FY estimate for an organic increase of 14bps.

VALUATION

- At yesterday's share price, the stock is trading at 17.5x EV/EBIT 2016/17e. This is 3% below the peer average.

NEXT CATALYST

- Pernod Ricard is to release its Q1 sales on 20th October

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY	Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
NEUTRAL	Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
SELL	Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
