Last Friday, the CFO provided a quick business update. Among the different issues that were addressed we note that 1/ M&A could be brought back to the table by next year; 2/ the integration of BXL is going pretty fast. Apart from that, SHP announced that a court has ruled in favour of Cadilla/Zyudus regarding the potential validity of its generic version of Lialda. While this is a negative per se, note that 1/Shire will obviously file an appeal... and previously won a court against another generic makers (Actavis); 2/ the impact on our FV would be quite limited (less than GBp100).

ANALYSIS

- Shire's CFO provided a business update during the Bofa ML Healthcare conference last Friday. Among the different issues that were addressed, M&A was a hot one... 1/ but paying down the debt associated with the acquisition of Baxalta is of course the very first priority (given that net debt over EBITDA needs to be in a 2-3x range by the end of 2017 – vs BG: 2.5x); 2/ interestingly, management is apparently willing to reinforce its Ophthalmology business apart from its rare disease one, especially since they expect lifitegrast to become a major product. Bearing this in mind, we would not be surprised to see some bolt-on acquisitions starting from H2 17.
- The comments made on BXL's biosimilars franchise brought nothing new to the table, as it is still under review... And we can expect a decision by the end of this year or in early 2017. But as far as we are concerned, we believe a divestment/discontinuation would be the best scenario as 1/ it basically involves TNF- $\alpha$  inhibitors biosimilars, and further firms are currently developing these kind of assets, 2/ other drugs with new mechanisms of action have already reached the market (anti-IL-17 in plaque psoriasis, JAK inhibitors in rheumatoid arthritis, etc.) and will grab some shares from TNF in our view. Given the potential sales we foresee (< USD400m by the end of 2020) and the SG&A investments needed, we believe ROI will be quite limited.
- There was nothing new/material regarding the ongoing cost-savings plan. Note however that 1/ the number of employees in the manufacturing field, and even in the commercial one (notably in haemophilia, immunology and oncology) was quite "disproportionate" according to the CFO; 2/ the integration (i.e. redesigning the overall structure/organization, telling people what their role will be, etc.) is going pretty fast, and most of this should be completed by the end of October.
- Apart from that, SHP announced that the US District Court for Delaware has ruled that Cadilla/Zyudus's potential generic version of Lialda does not infringe US patent No. 6,773,720... also called the '720 patent. Obviously, this is not good news, but note that 1/ in another case involving Actavis, the latter won on appeal in 2014... But earlier this year, the court ruled in favour of SHP; 2/ Lialda represents c.5% of our current 2017e sales estimate, and we anticipated a massive arrival of generics as of 2020 (when the patent is supposed to fall into the public domain); 3/ in a bear-case scenario (assuming generics by 2018), our FV would be trimmed by less than GBp100.

VALUATION

- BUY recommendation reiterated with a FV of GBp6,900 especially since 1/ we anticipate a double-digit EPS in the next few years; 2/ we continue to see a very positive risk-reward behind the stock (c.45-50% discount vs CSL and c.25% vs the European sector based upon our 2017e P/E ratio).

NEXT CATALYSTS

- Q3 2016 results: 28th October.
- Capital Market Day: 10th November.

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY	Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
NEUTRAL	Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
SELL	Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
