This morning GrandVision released Q3 sales up 2.2% to EUR825m, shy of the CS at EUR853m, mostly because of a weaker-than-expected comparable growth (+0.4% vs. CS: +3.5%) after +2.3% in H1. Following this weak top line performance, the adj. EBITDA reached EUR139m (CS: EUR151m), representing a 70bp-margin decline to 16.8%. Despite this disappointing quarter, GrandVision is confident to achieve this year its MT targets ("at least +5% FX-n" and high single-digit adj. EBITDA growth).

ANALYSIS

- Q3 revenue up 2.2% to EUR825m (+4.9% FX-n). The organic growth of 2.9% slowed down vs. the Q2 performance (+5.3%) since comparable growth had suddenly decelerated to 0.4% vs. +3.6% in Q2. The perimeter impact amounted to 3.4% this quarter after +3.2% in Q2 mostly thanks to the consolidation of For Eyes (US).
- Adj. EBITDA of EUR139m (-1.9% and 0.2% FX-n) short of CS at EUR151m. This performance implied a margin contraction of 70bp to 16.8% (CS: 17.6%) as the Group faced an operating deleverage because of the lower level of comparable growth. The profitability only improved in the G4 segment whilst it declined in the other regions ("Other Europe and "Americas & Asia"). Below the adj. EBITDA item, non-recurring charges remained at approx. EUR6m related to integration costs (Randazzo chain in Italy) and adjustments of inventory and insurance income.

GrandVision Q3 16 and 9M 16 results:

- By region and in Q3 alone: sales in the G4 segment declined by 2.2% to EUR479m given a significant FX impact (-3.5pp) following the fall of the GBP. The organic growth amounted to 1% and SSSG was only up 0.8%. This represents a deceleration vs. Q2 (+4.8%), explained by high comps in France the prior year. Despite this low comparable growth, the adj. EBITDA margin improved 40bp to 21.1%, driven by a higher share of exclusive brands within the sales mix.

- Revenue in the Other Europe was almost stable at EUR235m (-0.3%) with a slight decline in organic terms (-0.9%) offset by a positive growth from acquisitions of 0.9%. The comparable growth was -1.9%, due to the re-branding of the two Italian businesses (=> ST sales disruptions) and the longer-than-expected integration process that is still ongoing. GV had also to cope with a challenging comparison base in Finland. The adj. EBITDA margin decreased 20bp to 18%.

- Sales in LatAm & Asia came in at EUR111m, representing a 35.3% increase and 12.5% organic growth. SSSG was 4.9% with Turkey coming back to more normalised levels (high single-digit growth) after several quarters above 20%. Mexico and Chile grew at the same pace of growth whilst Brazil and Russia were in low single-digits. The adj. EBITDA margin contracted 220bp to 3.1% following dilutive effects from the integration of For Eyes in the US.

- Improving Financial Position. Over the first 9M capex amounted to EUR104m (+6%), explained by store openings (344 ytd to 6,454) and refurbishments. The net debt declined by ~8% to EUR841m, consequently the 12-month rolling net debt/EBITDA ratio decreased to 1.6x from 1.7x at the end of June 2015.

VALUATION

- We expect the stock to be under pressure following these lower-than-expected Q3 results.
- Despite this weak Q3 performance, the Group should be able to reach again this year its MT guidance: (i) achieve a top line growth of “at least 5% FX-n” (9M: +6.1%) and (ii) an adj. EBITDA growth in the high single-digits (9M: +4.3% FX-n), implying an acceleration in the adj. EBITDA growth in Q4.
- GrandVision's 2017e PEG of (2.1x) offers a significant discount relative to its most direct peer, Fielmann (3.1x).

NEXT CATALYSTS

- FY16 Results will be reported on 20th February 2017.

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY	Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
NEUTRAL	Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
SELL	Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
