We reiterate our Buy rating following the conference call held yesterday. We increase our adj. EPS ests. by 2% for 2017-18, as we add the acquisitions of Benteler Engineering and Swell to our model. We shave our lfl sales growth ests. to 6% from 6.3% for 2016 and to 6.4% from 6.7% for 2017. Market conditions remain buoyant, the turnaround of Germany is in line, while the resolution of a few local short-term issues in Italy, The Netherlands and Scandinavia is in progress. As such, we consider yesterday's sanction on the share price was overdone.

ANALYSIS

- Market conditions remain buoyant. According to Altran, the addressable market is up c. 5%, and the company is gaining market share. Revenue momentum remains solid in Life Sciences and Electronics (>+20%) and Automotive, Aerospace and Energy (up 7-10%), and even sees a recovery in Telecoms (+3%). Sales are growing double-digit with Airbus in France, and now Altran is in its top suppliers' list for IT services on top of engineering and manufacturing. The revenues generated with the top 5 clients is up 15%, and Altran keeps signing significant deals like the one inked last week with a large French company in Portugal (600 staff to be hired). There is no noticeable pricing pressure, and some customers accept price increases.
- Resolution of local short-term issues in progress. The decline in Italy with -0.3% lfl in Q3 vs. +6.9% in Q2 and +8.9% in Q1 was due to the pre-electoral climate (referendum) and the transition of two customers including Fiat, while a gradual rebound is expected from Q4 2016. The negative situation in Benelux and Scandinavia is more related to management issues - lack of sales dynamism - that have been fixed between the summer and now. The 7% lfl decline in The Netherlands for Q3 is also the result of the phase-out of 38 unprofitable small accounts essentially inherited from the acquisition of Nspyre and of a short-term blip at ASML. In Germany, Altran is on track with the turnaround plan, and Q4 2016 revenues in that country are likely to be stable vs. Q3, yet the issue mentioned in July for Stuttgart - where is Daimler - has not been fully fixed yet.
- Update on acquisitions, world class centres and offshoring. Benteler Engineering generates sales of EUR60m+ with a high-single-digit operating margin with potential for double-digit especially as operations outside Germany (The Netherlands and Sweden = est. 35% of sales) lacked of critical size. On its side, Swell generates sales below EUR20m and is highly profitable. On world class centres, 5 of them are up and running - successful on Big Data analytics, IoT still at the 'proof-of-concept' stage, Networks small but very profitable -, and Altran will announce 3 new ones by the end of the year and other ones in H1 2017. On offshoring, Altran employs c. 4,000 staff, o/w 2,000 in India, 800 in Ukraine and Romania, more than 1,000 in Morocco and 300 in Portugal.
- Update on staff. In Q3 2016 net staff hiring was around 480-500, or more or less in line with the number reported for Q2, of which c. 100 in Spain and Portugal, c. 100 in India and c. 300 in Morocco, and other countries. In Portugal, where Altran employs 300 staff, the goal is to rise to 1,000 within the next quarters primarily through a nearshore contract signed last week with a French group. The rise in the invoicing rate in Q3 (85.2%, +0.3ppt vs. Q2) was primarily related to France thanks to better management at the operating level, and Germany.

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY	Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
NEUTRAL	Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
SELL	Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
