Sales unveiled this morning came in at EUR5,413m, up ~14% as reported and 17% FX-n in line with CS (EUR5,362m). We highlight the ongoing strong momentum of ADS brand (+20%), particularly in North America (+20%) and in Greater China (+25%). Operating margin was in line with expectations (at 10.4% despite a higher negative FX impact on the GM). The FY16 outlook is confirmed. It is worth noting that Mr Rorsted will host his first conference call today (3:00pm CET) since he has been at the helm of the Group.

ANALYSIS

- A robust Q3 (+17% FX-n vs. +21% in H1). By brand, adidas sales soared 20% FX-n (H1: +25% FX-n) boosted by double-digit growth in all regions except Russia/CIS. All divisions performed well: Performance (Training, Running, Football, etc.) and of course Lifestyle (Originals, NEO). Reebok sales increased by 7% FX-n growth (H1: +7%), the group mentions growth across all regions, meaning that the streamlining of the US outlet store network is now complete. Trends at TMaG remained positive with 6% (H1: +2%), driven by double-digit growth in metalwoods and putters.
- By region, sales in Western Europe increased 15% FX-n thanks to a solid performance in all key markets (France, UK, Germany, etc.) Activity in North America continued to enjoy buoyant momentum (+20% vs. +24% in H1), well ahead of Nike (Q1 FY17 ended on 31st August: +6% FX-n), with certainly a balanced performance between Lifestyle and Performance. Revenues in Greater China expanded 25% FX-n after +30% in H1. There were no signs of a slowdown in Latin America with 16% growth in Q3 (H1: +19% FX-n), driven by double-digit increases in Argentina or Colombia and high single-digit growth in Mexico, Brazil might have been weak this quarter in our view. After having returned to growth in Q2 (+2%) Russia/CIS confirmed its good trend with +7%. Last but not least, MEAA grew 19% boosted by markets like South Korea, Australia and India.
- Q3 op. margin matched expectations (at 10.4%) despite the FX headwind. Indeed, the GM came in below consensus' estimates (-90bp to 47.6% vs. CS of 47.9%), with the deviation stemming from the significant FX impact as this quarter compared to a challenging comparison base with regard to hedging rates. Nevertheless, the strong organic growth has led to another operating leverage, opex decreasing by 80bp to 38% this quarter. As a consequence, the op. margin decline was limited to 20bp to 10.4% (CS: 10.4%). Net income from continuing operations increased 15% to EUR387m.

Q3 and 9M Adjusted results (excl. GW impairment):

Sales	5,413	13.8	14,604	14.6
Gross profit	2,574	11.7	7,091	14.3

- FY16 targets are confirmed. Management reiterated its FY16 outlook: (i) sales are expected to increase at a high-teens rate (CS and BG: +18%e), (ii) GM to be at a level between 48-48.3% vs. 48.3% in 2015 (BG: 48% / CS: 48.2%), (iii) Op margin to be "around 7.5%" (BG: 7.4% / CS: 7.6%) as the Group increased investments and registered one-off costs of EUR30m (o/w EUR20m will impact Q4) concerning restructuring measures at Reebok, and (iv) net income to increase to a level between EUR975-1,000m (+35-39%, BG: +36%e / CS: +39%e).

VALUATION

- Although this publication is in line with expectations, it naturally confirms adidas' strong momentum in almost all regions, particularly in Greater China and in North America. Our Neutral recommendation is justified by our FV of EUR136 that implies a downside potential (-8%).

Bryan Garnier stock rating system

For the purposes of this Report, the Bryan Garnier stock rating system is defined as follows:

Stock rating

BUY	Positive opinion for a stock where we expect a favourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential upside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
NEUTRAL	Opinion recommending not to trade in a stock short-term, neither as a BUYER or a SELLER, due to a specific set of factors. This view is intended to be temporary. It may reflect different situations, but in particular those where a fair value shows no significant potential or where an upcoming binary event constitutes a high-risk that is difficult to quantify. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
SELL	Negative opinion for a stock where we expect an unfavourable performance in absolute terms over a period of 6 months from the publication of a recommendation. This opinion is based not only on the FV (the potential downside based on valuation), but also takes into account a number of elements that could include a SWOT analysis, momentum, technical aspects or the sector backdrop. Every subsequent published update on the stock will feature an introduction outlining the key reasons behind the opinion.
